Blue Melodies

(Capo on 2)

Intro.: |(G) |(D)

I don t know (G)how to write you a (C)song
That says, I m (G)sorry, I know I was (D)wrong
I can t find the (G) words that don t make it (C)cheap
It s right on the (G)verge (D) and just out of (G)reach

(Chorus)

It must be a (C)sad song with a blue melo-(Em)dy
And I ll bet you it s (D)lonesome, as lonesome as can (G)be
But I m starting to (C)wonder if there s such a (Em)thing (C)
As a (G)sad song (D) that s too sad to (G) sing (D)

Maybe to-(G)night, maybe this time to-(C)morrow
Me and this (G)guitar will get right with this (D)sorrow
And I ll play it for (G)you, (G7) and you ll come back to (C) me
Cause you were always (G) a fool (D) for the blue melo-(G)dies

(Chorus)

So it must be a (C)sad song in three quarter (Em)time
That chills down to (D) the bone when the steel guitars (G)cry
But if it s not the (C)one that brings you home to (Em)me (C)
Then it s just a (G)sad song (D) that s too sad to (G) sing

Inst.: |(C) |(C) |(Em) |(Em) |(D) |(D) |(G)

Oh, but if it s not the (C)one that brings you back to (Em)me (C)
Then it s just a (G)sad song (D) that s too sad to (Em)sing (C)
