E C#m
Love is everything

I ve been told

Love is everything

F#m B E C#m
It s a smile on your face on a cold winter day at the thought of spring

It s getting up at night for the cry of a little bitty baby thing

And it s growing old

Love is everything

It s those fires that daddy stoked those nights to keep you warm

It s the hell your mama went through the day you were born

F#m B
And it s a thunderstorm

Oh, it s going off to war, it s the back and forth on a front porch swing
