

When The Credits Roll
George Strait

Capo is on 4th Fret. Hope you enjoy!

Verse 1:

C G D Em
I ve played the rebel teenager, the mysterious stranger, The wild child on the run,

G D Em
C G
I ve been the college dropout, the commitment cop out, The comin home prodigal son

Em C Em C

It feels kinda like a movie, Makes me wonder what I m gonna see

Chorus:

G D Em
C
When the credits roll and the show is over, and I see all the parts I played
G D Em C
Get a glimpse of my soul up on that screen, I only hope I can say

Em C

G
I was a little less villain, And a little more hero, When the credits roll

Verse 2:

G D Em
C
Was I in it for the money was I trying to be funny, Was it all about me being right,

G D Em
C
Was I a stand up witness did I offer some forgiveness, to help somebody see the light,

Em C Em
C
When the curtain comes down some day, I wonder what the crtic ll say

Chorus:

G D Em C
When the credits roll and the show is over, and I see all the parts I played
G D Em C
Get a glimpse of my soul up on that screen, I only hope I can say

Em

C

G

I was a little less villain, And a little more hero, When the credits roll

Outro:

D

C

When the credits roll, and the show is over, and I see all the parts Ive played

D

C

Get a glimpse of my soul up on that screen, I only hope I can say,
