

When The Credits Roll
George Strait

Capo is on 4th Fret. Hope you enjoy!

Verse 1:

Bb F C Dm
I ve played the rebel teenager, the mysterious stranger, The wild child on the run,

Bb F C Dm
I ve been the college dropout, the commitment cop out, The comin home prodigal son
Dm Bb Dm Bb

It feels kinda like a movie, Makes me wonder what I m gonna see

Chorus:

Bb F C Dm
When the credits roll and the show is over, and I see all the parts I played
F C Dm Bb
Get a glimpse of my soul up on that screen, I only hope I can say
Dm Bb
F
I was a little less villain, And a little more hero, When the credits roll

Verse 2:

Bb F C Dm
Was I in it for the money was I trying to be funny, Was it all about me being right,
Bb F C Dm
Was I a stand up witness did I offer some forgiveness, to help somebody see the light,
Dm Bb Dm
Bb
When the curtain comes down some day, I wonder what the crtic ll say

Chorus:

F C Dm Bb
When the credits roll and the show is over, and I see all the parts I played
F C Dm Bb
Get a glimpse of my soul up on that screen, I only hope I can say

Dm

Bb

F

I was a little less villain, And a little more hero, When the credits roll

Outro:

F

C

Dm

Bb

When the credits roll, and the show is over, and I see all the parts Ive played

F

C

Dm

Bb

Get a glimpse of my soul up on that screen, I only hope I can say,

Dm

Bb

F

I was a little less villain, and a little more hero, when the credits roll.

Thats it! Enjoy! This is my first tab I ve ever done so please give me feed back!