

When The Credits Roll
George Strait

Capo is on 4th Fret. Hope you enjoy!

Verse 1:

A E
F#m D
I ve played the rebel teenager, the mysterious stranger, The wild child on the run,
A E
F#m D A
I ve been the college dropout, the commitment cop out, The comin home prodigal son
F#m D F#m D
It feels kinda like a movie, Makes me wonder what I m gonna see

Chorus:

A E F#m
D
When the credits roll and the show is over, and I see all the parts I played
A E F#m D
Get a glimpse of my soul up on that screen, I only hope I can say
F#m D
A
I was a little less villain, And a little more hero, When the credits roll

Verse 2:

A E F#m
D
Was I in it for the money was I trying to be funny, Was it all about me being right,
A E F#m
D
Was I a stand up witness did I offer some forgiveness, to help somebody see the light,
F#m D F#m
D
When the curtain comes down some day, I wonder what the crtic ll say

Chorus:

A E F#m D
When the credits roll and the show is over, and I see all the parts I played
A E F#m D
Get a glimpse of my soul up on that screen, I only hope I can say

F#m

D

A

I was a little less villain, And a little more hero, When the credits roll

Outro:

A

E

F#m

D

When the credits roll, and the show is over, and I see all the parts Ive played

A

E

F#m

D

Get a glimpse of my soul up on that screen, I only hope I can say,

F#m

D

A

I was a little less villain, and a little more hero, when the credits roll.

Thats it! Enjoy! This is my first tab I ve ever done so please give me feed back!