Look at the sun, it went and poked it s head around the moon today and you were the one to help it find itself when it had lost its way oh wont you come home and help me find myself cause I m here in dismay

C G F F
Gone are the days they seem as if they were just one big distant haze, you started talking pretty softly I disturbed your peaceful gaze oh wont you come home cause damn I miss you so and I m here on my own

Juanita

G C
Wont you help me find my missing door

F C
I need ya

G C
you could be the one to guide me home

Gone are the days when we would sing and dance and drink into the night
Now all we have has all but disappeared and all we do is fight oh wont you come home cause damn i miss you girl and I m here on my own

And I do miss you and I can see the only road was born to nullify but I said sorry and I m a stupid man I meant to look you in the eye
