The girlâ€™s got no confidence

She went to Berkley, did primal therapy
She wrote the music for a series on the TV
She studied Rumi and Ibnâ€™Arabi
She meditated every summer in a teepee.

But no religionâ€™s gonna tie her down
She loves her beautiful clothes
Sheâ€™s sittinâ€™ pretty livinâ€™ way up town

But the girl, the girlâ€™s got no confidence
No the girl girl girl sweet girl
The girlâ€™s got no confidence.

Am                    G                    D                    C

G                    D                    Am                    C

She gets a little lonely when the sun goes do_____wn.

Sheâ€™s got the cool look, sheâ€™s got the money man
Sheâ€™s got the diamonds, sheâ€™s even got the suntan
Sheâ€™s a bright girl, sheâ€™s got a law degree
She pioneered the introduction of the CD.

When she was young she read the Gurdjieff books
The wisdom blew her away
Sheâ€™s got the money, sheâ€™s got good looks
But the girl, the girlâ€™s got no confidence
No the girl, the girlâ€™s got no confidence
No the girl girl girl sweet girl
The girlâ€™s got no confidence
No the girl girl girl sweet girl
The girlâ€™s got no confidence.

My first try, hope it works for you!

I had to do it, cause those chords were nowhere to be found and the song is great!
