

Wave Bye Bye
Gin Blossoms

Wave Bye Bye

{G} [C]

[Em] Can you take a lot of [C] pain
And make a little [D] game
Of the hell that you [G] find [Em] All the space you never [C] gave
For a secret never [D] safe
Get it out of your [G] mind

[Em] The past beyond my [C] sight
Ahead in blinding [D] light
That reflects in your [G] eye
[Em] The choices that you [C] make
All the memories and [D] mistakes
I only think about it sometimes

This is the [G] last time I ll ever say I [C] love you
This is the [G] last night I fall among these [C] graves
The first and [G] last time that I ll [D] cry
And [C] walk beneath a dark, lonely [Am] sky
And wave bye, [C] bye, bye, bye

[G] [C]

I could take the bitter cold
And wrap around your soul
In the light of your lie
All the things we ll never be
They were right in front of me
I can ever deny

A piece you never sold
You only feel a little cold
And slightly undone
The harder part of facing doubt
Standing up and climbing out
The deepest hole you ve ever dug

This is the last time I ll ever say I love you
This is the last night I fall among these graves
The first and last time that I ll cry
And walk beneath a dark, lonely sky
And wave bye, bye, bye, bye
Wave bye, bye

A piece you never sold
You only feel a little cold
And grown so tired
To want and never grow
In delusion of control
The hardest part is getting old

This is the last time I ll ever say I love you
This is the last night I fall among these graves
The first and last time that I ll cry
And walk beneath a dark, lonely sky
And wave bye, bye, bye, bye
Wave bye, bye wave bye, bye
Bye, bye
