Girls Aloud

Capo 1

Am / G / F / G

At my place and I was on the phone but it s you that I ll always call my home
In a world where the sun don t always shine
I can see tropicana in your eyes

When you re gone my loneliness is real
Got your love to remind me how that feel
In my head I can see your long goodbye
You kiss my lips as I try to fix your tie

F/G

And I

I m watching day time T.V.
I was wishing you were with me
I m counting hours and days
Gotta stop believing what the movies say cos

Am/G/F/G/Am/G/Em/F

Dark streets only suffocate me
Now you re off to Singapore
Heart aches, God, it nearly breaks it
Ciao, I m waiting for your call

Dark streets only suffocate me
Now you re off to Singapore
Heart aches, God, it nearly breaks it
Ciao, I m waiting for your call

Am / G / F / G

Please means more
I ll see you knocking at the door
Got it right in my place
Cos dreams means five and I ll be rocking on the floor
Can t you see it in my face?

F/G

And some nights,
When we re sat on the phone and kind of broken
Never ever thought
I d let you go again
That s the way I feel
You re all the love I need
