We started out with the shirt on our back
G D
a ten dollar bill and an old Pontiac,

a single room on the second floor,

the wolf howling at our door;

but we didn't know we were poor.

Both of us working as hard as we could
G D
to make ends meet, but they never would.

On Saturday morning you pawned your guitar and thirty dollars in your hand, C D D7

you bought my wedding band.
