JUST ANOTHER MAN - Glen Campbell

Capo on 1st

Intro:

Eadd11 - E - B - C# 2x

Eadd11 E B Bsus4 - B

I d like to stay with you for a while

Eadd11 E B Bsus4 - B

but I have promisses to keep

G#m C# F#

I could be happy here with you

B G#m C#

but I m a so wild oat to reap

Eadd11 E B Bsus4 - B

My strenght tells me my weakness shows

Eadd11 E B Bsus4 - B

you make me think of coats and ties

G#m C# F#

Of babies home secure - ty

G#m C# F#

and jobs that last from nine to five

G#m F#

I could conjure up the constant state of happiness

G#m F#

But I know that I am just another man

Bb7

And in knowing that I know

Ebm

that I ll get more or less what I can get

B G#m C#

So I ll do what I can

Eadd11 E B Bsus4 - B

I have many steps to take

Eadd11                    E                                    B                                    Bsus4 - B

reckless        steps I cannot        share

G#m                    C#                                    F#

A mountain        waits for me to        climb

G#m                                    C#                                    F#

and I must climb be -        cause it s        there

G#m                                                                                    F#

I could        conjure up the constant state of        happiness

G#m                                                                                    F#

But I        know that I am just another        man

Bb7

And in        knowing that I know

Ebm

that I ll get        more or less what I can get

B                                    G#m                                    C#

So        I ll do what I        can

Eadd11                    E                                    B                                    Bsus4 - B

But if you        should not let me        go

Eadd11                    E                                    B                                    Bsus4 - B

and if you        want me as I        am

G#m                    C#                                    Ebm

And for a        while I ll be a        God /

G#m                                    C#                                    Eadd11                    E - B - C#

instead of        just an -        other        man
