

Limerick

Glen Hansard

This is a song that Glen Hansard played in 2003 on Other Voices for RTE he also played the night before in Limerick. I am not sure of the real title of the song so i just it Limerick. If anyone can help in this regard i would be grateful. It s sung in the style for those of you who know that means

This is my fist attempt at doing this so please be kind - open to correction

This is how i play the song

Intro D (linger)

The C is played with a link back to D

Am	C
Oh I wish I was in limerick town
Am	C
Where the river winds past the ridges down
Am	C
And the little lanes lead to the gathering crowd
Am	C
In the light fall of the spring evening
Am	C
For among its streets a love Iâ€™ve found
Am	C
Oh, of a girl from a northern town
Am	C
And ill never see your streets no more

Am	C
So full of my sad thoughts of her

(Chorus)

Am	C
-----------	----------

And if you ever go to limerick town
Am C
Where the river winds past the ridges down
Am C
Will you seek the good friends there I found
Am C
And will you tell them I was asking
Am C
For them
Am C
Da-da-dee-da-da- da- daa-daa-down
Am C
La da dee da da da- daa-daa-down
Am C
La da dee da da da- daa-daa-down
Am C
La da dee da da da- daa-daa-down

Verse 2

Oh watch the rain drift over raheen
Or the river head a deep mist
Oh dusk has fallen over you Georgian streets for if ever we should chance to meet

Choras

And if you ever go to limerick town
Where the river winds past the ridges down
Will you seek the good friends there I found
And will you tell them I was asking
For them

Da-da-dee-da-da- da- daa-daa-da000

La da dee da da da- daa-daa-da000-|
La da dee da da da- daa-daa-da000-|
La da dee da da da- daa-daa-da000-|
