

Trying To Pull Myself Away

Glen Hansard

[illegible]

A Em7 A
Bang bang down on the piano til I smash the keys
Em7 A
Living alone with the melodies
Em7 A
Everything s gone and I don t know where

D	Fm#	E
And the rule of thumb don t apply anymore
D
Cause the house is burning....

A Em7 D
Trying to pull myself away

A Em7 D
I m caught in a pattern and I can t escape

A Em7 D
Trying to pull myself away

A Em7 A
Lately when I get lost there s this thing I know
Em7 A
Even the dogs have somewhere to go
Em7 A
Everything comes if you just let it be

A Em7 A
Work, work, brighten the corners that will never see
Em7 A
Untangle the thoughts that you know what they mean
Em7 A
I hope that the answer didn't come to late

D	Fm#	E
And the rule of thumb don t apply on me
Cause the tables are turning....

A Em7 D
Trying to pull myself away

A Em7 D
I m caught in a pattern and I can t escape

A Em7 D
Trying to pull myself away

[/ A / Em7 / D / D / pattern all through the outro]

Trying to pull myself away, everything s gone
Trying to pull myself away, everything s gone

Song performed by Glan Hansard in the movie Once - I haven t found the tab on the net, that s the reason why I ve tabbed it and the above is here now ;)

This is a basic chords progression. Chords themselves may be more complex in the version of the song, but this will do for a simple playing.
The strumming should be very strong and vivid - listen to the original and you will catch it.

Have fun.
