

Why Im Home
Go Radio

Artist: Go Radio
Song: Why I m Home

I love this song, but I couldn t find any tabs for it,
so I tried to write out the chords.
They might not be totally correct but they sound good enough to me and hopefully someone can use this to tab it out correctly

Intro: C, G, Am, F, Am, C, G, Am, Em, F

C G Am
I d paint you pictures all night long
F Am
And tell you tales of our every song
C G Am Em F
And let you know that you re the reason why I m home
C G Am
Or I could quote a page of poetry
F G Am
Show you all you mean to me
C G
And we d go falling somewhere faster
Am Em F G
Knowing we don t want to ever fall at all
C G
Just don t think that this will be easy
Am Em F
Saying that you love me
C G Am G
Lying tongues are clumsy
C G
And don t speak when one more word would kill me
Am Em F
Saying that you love me
C G Am G
Lying tongues are clumsy
C
But who am I to say
F
That every breath we take
C
Won t be another pointless kiss
G
We gave away

C

When what we love we burn

F

Is from the ashes we all yearn

C

G

To be the phoenix that rises up from the flames

C~

G~

And don't think that this will be easy

Am~ Em~ F~

Saying that you love me

C~ G~ Am G

Lying tongues are clumsy

C

And don't speak

When one more word would kill me

Saying that you love me proves

C G Am G

Lying tongues are clumsy

C

G

Don't think that this will be easy

Saying that you love me

C G Am G

Lying tongues are clumsy

C

G

And don't speak when one more word would kill me

Am Em F

Saying that you love me

C G Am G

When lying tongues are clumsy

C~

I'd paint you pictures all night long

And tell you tales of our every song

And let you know that you're the reason why I'm home
