

Cold Feet
Gob

Well its late at night and i figured i should tab/do the chords up for a song that easily should have 10 versions up on UG. Gob is one of my favorite bands and heres my favorite song by them.

Gob
Cold Feet
Foot in Mouth Disease

The intro is probably best played power chords as well as the first verse. After that i play open chords the rest of the way for it. Either way sounds good, just easier to get the intro sounding right with the Powerchords if anything.

Capo 1 if you want to play in C# like Gob does.
