Cold Feet

Gob

Well its late at night and i figured i should tab/do the chords up for a song easily should have 10 versions up on UG. Gob is one of ${\tt my}$ favorite bands and heres my favorite song by them.

Gob

Foot in Mouth Disease

The intro is probably best played power chords as well as the first verse. After that i play open chords the rest of the way for it. Either way sounds good, just easier to get the intro sounding right with the Powerchords if anything.

Capo 1 if you want to play in C# like Gob does.
