The chords in parenthesis are relative to a capo at the 4th fret.
I did this quickly on request; let me know if I've made any mistakes.
Note: the recording appears on the sharp side--A=444ish.
So, unless you tune accordingly, you'll sound a little off-pitch.

[Intro]
B(G) G#m(Em) B(G) G#m(Em)

[Verse 1]
B(G) G#m(Em)
B(G) G#m(Em)
   There is no way I'm looking for a boyfriend
E(C) F#(D) B(G)
   There is no way I'm looking for a scene
D#(B) G#m(Em)
   I need to save some dough
F#(D) B(G)
   I'm a working girl you know
E(C) F#(D)
   I'll fend attention off I keep to myself

[Verse 2]
I love my room I'm getting used to sleeping
Some nights I really like to lie awake
I hear the midnight birds
The message in their words
The dawn will touch me in a way a boy could never touch that promise never meant so much to me

[Chorus]
You have been warned. I'm known to be contrary
Backward at school, I wrote from right to left
Teacher never cared for me
Preacher said a prayer for me
God help the girl. She needs all the help she can get
I see for hours just waiting for his phone call

E(C)       F#(D)       B(G)

I'll eat the chocolate hidden in the fridge

D#(B)       G#m(Em)

I'll play his messages

F#(D)       B(G)

Analyze his intonation

E(C)       F#(D)

Please stop me there I'm even boring myself

[Verse 4]

B(G)       G#m(Em)

I think of him when I'm doing the dishes

E(C)       F#(D)       B(G)

I think of him while looking in the sink

D#(B)       G#m(Em)

This ain't no play on words

F#(D)       B(G)

My love for him's absurd

E(C)       F#(D)

If he gave me a sign I'd think about for a week

I'd build it up and then I'd tell him: no.

[Chorus]

B(G)       G#m(Em)

You have been warned. I'm known to be contrary
