D Am(7) Em
Everybody knows. He comes and goes. But the smell of his last cigarette, F#m Am G C G (C G)x3 Am still lingers in your clothes. So don t be stupid and naive, he s only
G A D
Playing cupid. And no matter what he says,
B E A D
He s only skimming off the cream. And he s only stoking boilers, while his B E engine gathers steam
D E (E7)E D E (E7) E
He isn t good enough. He isn t good enough to me.
A
He s only using you.

He s Only passing through.

E Eb E Eb
Cause he s a wide boy, sitting in the back row.
E Eb E Eb
Necking with his girlfriend. Goin to a go-go.
E Eb E Eb
Wide boy. Really goin nowhere.

D Am
Everybody knows. When the sewer overflows.
Em F#m Am
He ll be the one that always comes up, smelling like a rose. With one foot
G C G C G C G Am G
in your doorway. And one hand on your heart. He ll never do it your way.
A D B7
So don t part with the rubber gloves. Till the Turtle doves find a place to stay in. Cos I saw Espresso Bongo. When I was a kid. So I know what I m
E7 A D B7
