C#      B      A#

Find a way

F#                    {riff 1} x2

A way to be

C#      B      A#

You re looking down again

F#                    {riff 1} x2

Just let it be

E                    F#                    E                    F# E                    {riff 1} x2

And I d only do for you what you d do for me

E                    F#                    E                    F# E                    {riff 1} x1

And I only would do for you what you d do for me

C#                    B A#                    F#                    {riff 1} x2

Wastin time like it was free

C#      B      A#                    F#                    {riff 1} x2

Will you ever find where you ll be

E                    F#                    E                    F# E                    {riff 1} x2

And I d only do for you what you d do for me

E                    F#                    E                    F# E                    {riff 1} x2

And I only would do for you what you d do for me

E                    F#                    E                    F# E                    {riff 1} x2

And I only would do for you what you d do for me yeeeeeah

E                    F#                    E                    F# E                    {riff 1} x1 w/ part 2 of riff 1

And I only would do for you what you d do for me

c# E B F# (note: E chord is played on second string, 7th fret power chord)

Ohhhh... don t look back just to lean on me

Ohhhh... it s taken the life out of me

It s not like you d know

You ve never been close enough
Closer than you ve been to me
It s not what you say
It s just in the way
You push me awaaay

E F# E F# E

And I only would do for you what you d do for me yeeeeeah {riff 1} x2
And I only would do for you what you d do for me yeeeeeah {riff 1} x2
And I only would do for you what you d do for me {riff 1} x2
And I only would do for you what you d do for me {riff 1} x3

*this is just my second tab so go easy on me if it isnt perfect, which i think it just about is* hey rob, i got no help for this either :0
