VERSE
```
F                               Dm
Every time a person says their last words
        Bb                      F
They communicate a message to us all
                          Dm
Sometimes the message is secret
          Bb            C           F
Without a code it s like talking to a wall
```

VERSE (AS BEFORE)
Every time you crack a code you find another one
You keep on cracking codes it never ends
But the quantity of codes you must decipher
Is the quantity of messages you send

CHORUS
```
F         C       Bb
I m trying desperately
F         C       Bb
To leave you with a key
Dm            Bb                   F
Within every message there s a code
    C                   Bb
That keeps you hanging on
      C
And leads you down the road
```

VERSE (AS BEFORE)
Every single code you have encountered
Is part of another one you ve not
The pieces of the code are like a puzzle
Where you can only use the pieces that you ve got

CHORUS (AS BEFORE)

ALT. VERSE
```
Gm                              Dm
Every time a person sings their last word
```

       Bb                              C
They communicate a message that is sealed
    Gm                              Dm
And when you crack the code that it is locked in
     Bb                      C
The secret coded message is revealed
```

VERSE (AS BEFORE)
So I ll keep on leaving codes until you figure out
If you crack them all I m sure you re bound to see
I keep on leaving codes in all my tracks and trails
So you don t know what the next one s gonna be
