(continue guitar simile)

A

On the stroke of ten

C/A

I slipped into the van

D/A

And hid myself behind some boxes

Waitin for the driver yeah

The first time I was lucky

C/A

For the van took me to Kentucky

D/A

A

The first time too I slept in a railway station

C#m

E

I woke up wondering you re running to nowhere

C#m

E

But at the same time I was here, oh and I didn t care

D

A/C#

C

G/B

Oh where am I ac companied by

F

G

E

Good hopes, and believe me I ll get by

Yeah, I m a runnin , well I m a runnin

I m a runnin till I can t go on

Till I find where I belong

Yeah I m a runnin I m a runnin

Oh I m a runnin till I can t go on

Till I find where I belong

A

So I ramble through the country

C/A

And most of the time

Nature doesn t care less about me

And sometimes when I m alone

C/A

D/A

I hear my father say: Son you gotta do something

A

Take that advice from me now

C#m

E

So I drop down to South Carolina

C#m

E

With a little luck and a little sunshine yeah

D

C

G/B

I say, here I stay, here I pray

F

E

For happiness, oh every day

But until now

Am

C

G

I m a runnin , well I m a runnin

D

F

I m a runnin till I can t go on

C G
Till I find where I belong

Am F C G
Yeah I m a runnin I?m a runnin
