Standard E Tuning

Hah! The first tab from their new CD, Stomping Ground, before it even comes out! (Four days) The CD s pretty good, this is probably the softest song on it (no ska this time). Real simple, like six chords, sometimes barred sometimes just power chords.

Not much of a tab, but the songs catchy so whatever. Next I ll probably do some other songs from their new album, You Think It s A Joke, Forgiveness and Pick A Fight all sound good. Personally, I think San Simeon would be a good live song because there s so much room for improv crap. Whatever, here s how they play it, comments, questions, corrections: goldentoad@hotmail.com
