Drifting out of time, something on your mind

And I wanna be the one that you call when you get down

No matter where you are in the world I ll be around

Fly me away on an aeroplane

High in the sky want to see you again

Want to know this time, gonna tell you what I m feeling

Gonna know this time, gonna get it back that feeling

Miles and miles of sun, endless roads twist on

Don t want to live a life in a world that s all the same

These crazy little things that you do are magical
