Verse 1:

G C D D7sus2
You can write your tunes with rhythm and blues as your alibi
G C D D7sus2
You can sell your soul and lay the blame on the passers-by
G C D
You shake your body on the tv screen
D C Bb G
It seems to me, youâ€™d try anything twice
G C D D7sus2
And swing it out and use it as your aphrodisiac
G C D D7sus2
You can give it to me, to me, Plain to see that Iâ€™ll give it you back
G C D
You let it flow, let it go, thereâ€™s nothing to it
D C Bb G C Bb Em D
Anyone can try anything twice, try anything twice

Chorus:

G C F Em
Chasing after stories that have already been told
G C F Em
Cannot look old son house in the eyes

I know where you carry such a fragile load
G C
But Iâ€™ve got yours, and youâ€™ve got mine

Itâ€™s a rhythm and blues alibi
