

Emotionless
Good Charlotte

Song: "Emotionless"
Artist: Good Charlotte
Album: The Young and the Hopeless
Tabbed by: Aaron McDivitt
Tuning: 1/2 Step down (Eb, Ab, Db, Gb, Bb, Eb)

Hey whatsup, this is an amazing acoustic song by Good Charlotte. The strumming is very easy to pick on. Some of the chords may look pretty weird, but that's what they are.

I'm positive this is totally right. Thanks, I hope you like it.

[Verse 1]

	Em9	D* Dsus	C2
Hey dad,				I'm writing to you
Em9	D* Dsus	C2
Not to tell you that I still hate you
Em9	D* Dsus	C2
Just to ask you how you feel
	C2
And how we fell apart
	C2	(stop)
How this fell apart.
	Em9	D* Dsus	C2
Are you happy out there in this great wide world
Em9	D* Dsus	C2
Do you think about your sons do you miss your little girl
Em9	D* Dsus	C2
When you lay your head down how do you sleep at night
Em9	D* Dsus	C2
Do you even wonder if we're alright?
	C2
But we're alright, we're alright

[Chorus]

G

Its been a long road without you by my side

C2

Why werenâ€™t you there all the nights that we cried

G

You broke my motherâ€™s heart you broke your children for life

C2

Its not ok but weâ€™re alright

G

I remember the days you were a hero in my eyes

C2

But those are just a long lost memory of mine

G

I spent so many years learning how to survive

C2

Now Iâ€™m writing just to let you know weâ€™re still alive. (stop)
