

Songwriter

Good Rats

didn't find chords for this amazing song. so i've decided to post them.
Enjoy. Amir b.

A Fm
They won't play my music no i'm never comin' back
G D
I made too many boasts along the way
A D
And it's a cold, long lonely day

A Fm
Let me share your fire and I'll sing a song for you
G D
Funny cuz I only have this song
A D
and if you want, I'll move on chorus:

A D
The songwriter can make you laugh or cry
A D
He's pumping gas at night just to survive
A D
And all he asks is for you to sing his songs
G D A
And put his name in lights where it belongs

Solo: A - D *2.

A
I used to have a family
Fm
A wife and three small kids
G D
I couldn't give them anything they need
A D
I guess I'm a long way from being a man

A
Hey there Mr. Gershwin
Fm
Gone at thirty eight
G D

Gave so much and yet so much to give

A D

And I thank you for the Ratcity in Blue

G D A

And I must confess sometimes I think of you

chorus:

A D

the songwriter can make you laugh or cry

A D

He's pumping gas a night just to survive

A D

And all he asks is for you to sing his song

G D A

And put his name in lights where it belongs