intro

F C9

F C9
If I could, I would fix our wrists together

F C9
In such a fashion that God, Himself, couldn't tear us apart

F C9
But impossibility knows nothing of compromise

F C9
And hope can only take us so far

F C9 F C9

C F
Tracing your outline in my sheets

C F
Painting your face on my pillow

C F
Faking going to sleep so i can

C F
Fake waking up to you

But my hands are tied by miles

F C9
If I could I would, rest our cheeks together

F C9
So I could hear every word that escapes your mouth

F C9
And kisses could act as punctuation and i would pray and wait

F C9
For periods and exclamation points
