

A Tune For November

Gordon Bok

[Intro]

A E F#m E

[Verse]

When the wind backs around A
To the north in November B E F#m
Wild geese go a-ganging out to sea B
There s snow on the wind E
And it s ever been the same A E
That north wind don t even know my name A B
That north wind don t even know my name A E A E

[Verse]

Long time ago A
I had a pretty little girl B E
She had pretty ways and silver in her tongue A F#m7 B
But that winter wind come prowling around E F#m E
That pretty girl did go A E
She found a man whose house was snug and warm A B
A man whose house was warm in the wind and snow A E A

[Verse]

When the wind backs around E A
To the north in November B E F#m
Wild geese go a-ganging out to sea B
There s snow on the wind E
And it s ever been the same A E
A B

That north wind don t even know my name
A E B
That north wind don t even know my name

[Verse]

E A
Now the days come round
B E F#m
I ve got another kind of woman
A F#m7 B
She s got no teasing eyes and her tongue is still
E F#m E
And she likes the snowflakes falling
A E
She doesn t mind the rain
A B
She knows what s in her heart like she knows her name
A E
She knows what s in her heart like she knows her name

[Verse]

E A
I ll build her a house
B E
Of the winds of November
A F#m7 B
Shingled with the sun along the shore
E
With the wind for her blanket
A E
The rain will be her door
A B
The pine for her pillow and her floor
A E
The pine for her pillow and her floor
