Along The Famine Road Gordon Bok
[Intro] B F# B F#
[Verse]
B E F# B
Rock by rock and stone by stone, I walked along the famine road
$f E$ $f B$ $f C#m$ $f F#$ From the limestone at The Burren to the foot of Mullaghm $ ilde{A}^3$ r
E B C#m F# E
And I had a silent revelation as I walked along the lonely strand
E B E F# B F#
That every stone along this road, was touched by hungry hands
[Verse]
B F# B
In my mind I see their black coats turned against the wind and rain $f E f B f C#m f F#$
I hear their cries of desperation, the anger and the shame
E B C#m F# To see their children die of hunger, to be driven from the land
E B E F# B	F# B
I hear their prayers that went unanswered, to feed these hungry hands
[Vorgo]
[Verse] E F# B
E F# B In spite of rain and hunger, they broke and laid these stones E B C#m F#
In spite of rain and hunger, they broke and laid these stones B C#m F# And somewhere deep inside them they found the strength to carry on
E F# B In spite of rain and hunger, they broke and laid these stones E B C#m F#
In spite of rain and hunger, they broke and laid these stones E B C#m F# And somewhere deep inside them they found the strength to carry on E B C#m F#
In spite of rain and hunger, they broke and laid these stones E B C#m F# And somewhere deep inside them they found the strength to carry on E B C#m F# And I m sure they never realized, it was never in the plan
In spite of rain and hunger, they broke and laid these stones E B C#m F# And somewhere deep inside them they found the strength to carry on E B C#m F# And I m sure they never realized, it was never in the plan E B E F# But they held the spirit of a nation, safe in hungry hands
In spite of rain and hunger, they broke and laid these stones E B C#m F# And somewhere deep inside them they found the strength to carry on E B C#m F# And I m sure they never realized, it was never in the plan E B E F# B F# B F#
In spite of rain and hunger, they broke and laid these stones E B C#m F# And somewhere deep inside them they found the strength to carry on E B C#m F# And I m sure they never realized, it was never in the plan E B But they held the spirit of a nation, safe in hungry hands [Verse] Now they say this road goes nowhere, but I say it never ends
In spite of rain and hunger, they broke and laid these stones E B C#m F# And somewhere deep inside them they found the strength to carry on E B C#m F# And I m sure they never realized, it was never in the plan E B B E F# But they held the spirit of a nation, safe in hungry hands [Verse] Now they say this road goes nowhere, but I say it never ends E B C#m F#	3
In spite of rain and hunger, they broke and laid these stones E B C#m F# And somewhere deep inside them they found the strength to carry on E B C#m F# And I m sure they never realized, it was never in the plan E B E F# But they held the spirit of a nation, safe in hungry hands [Verse] B Now they say this road goes nowhere, but I say it never ends E B C#m F# F# For it took their children round the world, to strange and distant land	ds
In spite of rain and hunger, they broke and laid these stones E B C#m F# And somewhere deep inside them they found the strength to carry on E B C#m F# And I m sure they never realized, it was never in the plan E B B E F# But they held the spirit of a nation, safe in hungry hands [Verse] Now they say this road goes nowhere, but I say it never ends E B C#m F#	ds
E F# B In spite of rain and hunger, they broke and laid these stones E B C#m F# And somewhere deep inside them they found the strength to carry on E B C#m F# And I m sure they never realized, it was never in the plan E B E F# B F# But they held the spirit of a nation, safe in hungry hands [Verse] Now they say this road goes nowhere, but I say it never ends E B C#m F# For it took their children round the world, to strange and distant land E B C#m F# And we who are their children s children, in our hearts we understand E B C#m F# And we who are their children s children, in our hearts we understand E B C#m F#	ds B
In spite of rain and hunger, they broke and laid these stones E B C#m F# And somewhere deep inside them they found the strength to carry on E B C#m F# And I m sure they never realized, it was never in the plan E B E F# But they held the spirit of a nation, safe in hungry hands [Verse] B Now they say this road goes nowhere, but I say it never ends E B C#m F# For it took their children round the world, to strange and distant land E B C#m F# And we who are their children's children, in our hearts we understand
In spite of rain and hunger, they broke and laid these stones E B C#m F# And somewhere deep inside them they found the strength to carry on E B C#m F# And I m sure they never realized, it was never in the plan E B E F# B F# But they held the spirit of a nation, safe in hungry hands [Verse] B E F# B Now they say this road goes nowhere, but I say it never ends E B C#m F# For it took their children round the world, to strange and distant land E B C#m F# And we who are their children's children, in our hearts we understand E B E F# B F# E That every road we ve ever walked, was built by hungry hands
E F# B In spite of rain and hunger, they broke and laid these stones E B C#m F# And somewhere deep inside them they found the strength to carry on E B C#m F# And I m sure they never realized, it was never in the plan E B E F# B F# But they held the spirit of a nation, safe in hungry hands [Verse] Now they say this road goes nowhere, but I say it never ends E B C#m F# For it took their children round the world, to strange and distant land E B C#m F# And we who are their children s children, in our hearts we understand E B C#m F# And we who are their children s children, in our hearts we understand E B C#m F#

C#m

В

F#

From the limestone at The Burren to the foot of Mullaghmór

E
B
C#m
F#

And we who are this island s children in our hearts we understand

E
B
E
F#
B
F#

That every road we ll ever walk, was built by hungry hands