

Dublin City
Gordon Bok

[Intro]

G

[Verse]

G Em
As I was a-walking through Dublin City
G C
About the hour o' twelve at night
G Em D
It was there I saw a fair pretty lady
Em C Em
Washing her feet by candlelight

[Verse]

G Em
First she washed them and then she dried them
G C
Around her shoulder, she pegged a towel
G Em D
And in all my life I ne'er did see
Em C Em D Em D
Such a fine young lass in all the world

[Chorus]

G Em
She had twenty, eighteen, sixteen, fourteen
G C
Twelve, ten, eight, six, four, two, none
G Em D
Nineteen, seventeen, fifteen, thirteen
Em C Em D
Eleven, nine, seven, five, three and one

[Verse]

G Em
Round and around, the wheel of fortune
G C
Where it stops wearies me
G Em D
Fair maids they are so deceivin'
Em C Em D Em D
Sad experience teaches me

[Chorus]

G Em
Twenty, eighteen, sixteen, fourteen
G C

Twelve, ten, eight, six, four, two, none

G Em D

Nineteen, seventeen, fifteen, thirteen

Em C Em D

Eleven, nine, seven, five, three and one

[Verse]

G Em

Oh, the tides do be runnin the whole world over

G C

Why, twas only last June month, I mind that we

G Em D

Were thinking the call in the breast of the lover

Em C Em D Em D

So everlasting as the sea

[Chorus]

G Em

Twenty, eighteen, sixteen, fourteen

G C

Twelve, ten, eight, six, four, two, none

G Em D

Nineteen, seventeen, fifteen, thirteen

Em C Em D Em D

Eleven, nine, seven, five, three and one

[Verse]

G Em

But there s the same little fishes that swim and spin

G C

And the same old moon on the cold wet sand

G Em D

And I no more to she, nor she to me

Em C Em D Em D

Than the cool wind passing over my hand

[Chorus]

G Em

Twenty, eighteen, sixteen, fourteen

G C

Twelve, ten, eight, six, four, two, none

G Em D

Nineteen, seventeen, fifteen, thirteen

Em C Em

Eleven, nine, seven, five, three and one
