The Brandy Tree
Gordon Bok

[Intro]
Am   Em   Am Em   F   Em   F G Am

[Verse]
```
                  Em
```
I go down to the brandy tree
```
        Am             Em
```
Take my nose and my tail with me
```
F                           Em
```
All for the world and the wind to see
```
F        G        Am
```
Never come back no more

[Instrumental]
C   G   C   G   Am   Em   F G Am

[Verse]
```
                          Em
```
Down the meadow-marsh, deep and wide
```
           Am        Em
```
Tumble the tangle by my side
```
F                        Em
```
All for the westing wind to ride
```
     F           G         Am
```
And slide in the summer rain

[Verse]
```
C                    G
```
Sun come follow my happy way
```
C                    G
```
Wind come walk beside me
```
Am                        Em
```
Moon on the mountain go with me
```
   F        G        Am
```
A wondrous way I know

[Verse]
```
                      Em
```
I go down by the windy sea
```
          Am        Em
```
Call in the seal to play with me
```
F                        Em
```
Slide on the rock and dive in the bay
```
F        G          Am
```
Sleep on the ledge at night

[Verse]

```
        C                        G
But the seal doesn t try to tell me how
    C                    G
To fish in the windy blue
Am                              Em
Seal s been fishing for a thousand years
          F          G        Am
And he knows that I have too

[Instrumental]
C  G   C   G   Am    Em    F G Am

[Verse]
                              Em
When the frog goes down to the mud to sleep
              Am             Em
The lamprey hides in the boulders deep
  F                      Em
I take my nose and my tail and go
  F         G        Am
A hundred thousand hills

[Verse]
C                        G
Sun come follow my happy way
C                      G
Wind come walk beside me
Am                          Em
Moon on the mountain go with me
    F         G        Am
A wondrous way I know

[Instrumental]
C    G    Am Em Am

[Verse]
                          Em
Some day down by the brandy tree
              Am          Em
I ll hear the shepherd call for me
F                        Em
Call me to leave my happy ways
          F       G        Am
And the shining world I know

[Verse]
C                         G
Sun on the hill come go with me
    C                      G
My days have all been free
      Am                      Em
The pipes come laughing down the wind
      F                      G
```

And that s the way I go
F   G   Am
That s the way for me
