

I could ve made chancellor without you on my mind.
Before the dawning s first light
I must first close up all the doors and the windows and try to trap that cool air to be one with us.

I m discovering uses for you I thought I d never find.
I could ve made chancellor without you on my mind.