Walls
Gordon Lightfoot

(C) I m not ashamed to (G7) say that I ve (C) loved (Em) you (Am) well
I m not A(D)shamed to let you (G) know (F)
I m (C) just a name that s (Am) all, (C) scratched upon your (Am) wall
You used it (Dm) well but what the (G7) hell
That s what walls are (C) for

(C)I m not ashamed to (G7)listen to the (C)fast (Em)falling (Am)rain
In the (D)morning upon my (G)win(F)dow
I m (C)not afraid to (Am) cry, (C)I m not ashamed to (Am) try
To be your (Dm)friend once (G7)again
That s what s friends are (C)for

Friends are (Em) for (Am) sorting out the (D) hangups that we (G) hide
Walls are (Em) for (Am) shutting out the (D) love we feel in(G)side (F)

(C) I m not ashamed, (G7)no, to talk it (C)over (Em)once (Am)again
To re(D)arrange my vocabu(G)lary (F)
But (C)I can t seem to (Am) find, any (C)words to change your (Am)mind
Because I (Dm)left them all (G7)behind
And that s what words are (C)for

Words are (Em)for (Am)explaining the (D)mistakes we might have (G)made
Names are (Em)for (Am)calling when there s (D)nothing left to (G)say (F)

(C)I m not ashamed, (G7)no, to say I ve (C)loved (Em)you (Am)well
I m not A(D)shamed, and yet (G)I know (F)
I m (C) just a name that s (Am) all, (C) scratched upon your (Am) wall
You used it (Dm) well but what the (G7) hell
That s what walls are (C) for

(C)I m not ashamed of (G7)wearing out my (C)old (Em) grey (Am)socks
Chasing (D) you around the (G) back (F)woods
I m (C)not ashamed to (Am)darn nor to (C) proud to find some (Am)yarn
To sew them (Dm) up once (G7)again
 Cause that s what socks are (C)for
