Your Loves Return Gordon Lightfoot

#-----# #This file is the author s own work and represents their interpretation of the ##song. You may only use this file for private study, scholarship, or research. # #-----# # Date: Tue, 6 Jan 1998 13:33:02 -0800 From: Tal Hurley To: guitar@olga.net, acoustic@olga.net Subject: Fwd: Your Love s Return by Gordon Lightfoot {title: Your Love s Return (song for Stephen Foster) } {written by Gordon Lightfoot} {1969} D Е Come to the door my pretty one Gm Put on you rings and precious things D Em Esus Hide all your tears as best you can E7 Α Try to recall what we once had D D7 G Gsus G Roses are waiting for dewdrops to fall D7 G D Gsus G Climbing your windows and walls Gm D \mathbf{E} Bells in the steeple are ringing, singing C F Listen to them talk about Δ Your Love s Return Let me come in my pretty one And try to undo what I have done For I must be forgiven now I will not lose what I have won Roses are waiting for dewdrops to fall Climbing your windows and walls Leaves in the garden are falling, calling Listen to them talk about Your Love s Return Open the door my pretty one Wake from your sleep and take me home Open your eyes and look my way

I cannot leave your love alone (chorus same as first)

(All corrections or suggestions welcomed at dgtalji@hotmail.com or address below)

Tal Hurley TalHurley@webtv.net