Title: Wake up Dancin
Author: Gordon Mote

Intro: D, Bm, G, Asus4, A

VERSE 1

D
He pulled that straight-back wicker chair
Bm G
Up next to grandpa s bed

And with a voice left weak by pain
Asus4 A
His grandpa softly said

D
Could you get my cowboy boots
Bm
And that gold pocket watch of mine
G
And bring me my Sunday suit
Asus4 A
With the vest that s satin-lined
Em A D
When he saw the sadness in his grandson s eyes
Bm
He said I ve got to be prepared
Em A
Because I m going home tonight

CHORUS:

D
I m gonna waltz across the Heavens
Bm
While a band of angels play
G
I m gonna two-step on some stardust
A
A million miles away

D
You ll never have a new beginning
Bm
Until you reach the end

G A
And these old legs are gonna come to life again
D Bm
Gonna wake up dancin

D
He said if it s not too much trouble
Bm
There s one thing left to do
G
Since I m going to see your grandma
Asus4 A
Could you get her favorite shoes

D
The ones with those ribbons
Bm
Red and trimmed in white

The last time she had them on Asus4 A
I believe we danced all night

Em A D
And why she left them here it s plain to see
Bm Em Asus4 A
Your grandma never danced with anyone but me

D
And we re gonna waltz across the Heavens
Bm
While a band of angels play
G
We re gonna two-step on some stardust
A
A million miles away
D
You ll never have a new beginning
Bm
Until you reach the end
G A
And these old legs are gonna come to life again
