G 3x0003

G+ 3x0033

Dm xx0231

[Verse 1]

Am G
Revolving doors, what have I done?

Am G
Someone on the TV, a tepid loss

Am G Am
Revolving doors, what will I become?

G
A redneck song

[Chorus 1]

G+ Dm
Paid up for seven

G+ Dm
But he only got an eight now, now

Am G Am
I feel that I m paused by all the pills

G
I see no wrong in here

[Break]

Am G Am G

Am
On a foggy day

G
(Revolving doors in London to a foggy day in Boston)

Am G
(Revolving doors in London to a foggy day in Boston)

Am G
I sit in a diner and the Beatles play

Am G
(Revolving doors in London to a foggy day in Boston)

[Chorus 2]

G+ Dm
I m paid up for a seven

G+ Dm
But I only got S.O. eight, oh, now

Am G Am
I feel that I m paused by all the pills

G

I seem to run out here

Am G
(Revolving doors in London to a foggy day in Boston)

Am G
(Revolving doors in London to a foggy day in Boston)

[Verse 2]

Am G
Revolving doors

Am G Am G
It s stormy on the eastern sea board

Am G
He got silver up his night

[Chorus 3]

G+ Dm G+ G+
He paid up for three

Am
But got only two

Am G
(Revolving doors in London to a foggy day in Boston)

Am G
(Revolving doors in London to a foggy day in Boston)

[Outro]

N.C.
Then he said
Seems I was born for this
Seems I was born to this

N.C.
Revolving doors
Revolving doors
