Tuning: (Low to high)C-G-C-G-C-C

to figure it out, I found an article where Warren Haynes explained that he was using a RD with extremely heavy strings tuned all the way down to an open B chord. You can with the tuning if you don't wish to detune that low...but this is how he plays it.

Not all parts are exact, specifically the break/solo and the verse, but it is pretty and should give you the right idea. Enjoy. Got Mule?
