

F# Em A
Saddest sound that I ever heard

F# B
The bluest note that nobody could play

F# E A
Ravens sang with us that night on the stage

F# E A
Tears of sadness, tears of rage

F# D C# C
But nobody spoke, we all felt old

D A
And in the way

C#
So walk beside me

D A Bm
Or above me, I don't know

F# E
These days it sure seems

F# B
I'm lost where ever I go

F# E A
God, how could you, I heard someone say

F# E A
And what do we do with our lives now anyway?

F# B
Now that our North Star can no longer be found

F# E A
But there's a banjo moon in a tie-dyed sky

F# E A
Hippies dance and babies cry

F# D A B
Church bells ring as a silver-haired angel looks down

D E F#
And the blood of his music runs through the veins of our guitars

B B
Bright lights, Dark Star

C#
I never knew you

D A Bm
But then who really did

F# E
If you were at all like me

F# B
You managed to keep yourself hid
