

Lose Some Time

Grace Potter and the Nocturnals

Lose Some Time

Grace Potter And The Nocturnals

Chords by Is Smith israelgsmith[at]gmail[dot]com

[Intro D Dsus D 2x]

D Dsus D Dsus [every line of every verse]

You ve got a baby pretty as a Creole queen
And my old man s got eyes of blue and green
But you took me dancing when our lovers weren t around
You called it losing time in the in between

C G D
Ohh ohh ohh

Could be all the booze we drank in Austin
Could be we re just scared of growing old
Could be this ain t no way of living
But there ain t nothing like that rock n roll

[chorus]

D A G D
And when that light shines on you baby you know it - soothes my soul
D A G D
Finding time to lose with you is water - in the dust bowl

A
I got arms to hold me every night
G D E
But I m still sleeping - with a ghost

F G
Your kisses are so sweet and slow
F E D
It feels alright as long as they don t know

We rolled out of a hotel room in Georgia
Just in time to say a quick goodbye
But you don t even look over your shoulder
You re thinking how you ll look your baby in the eye

[chorus]

F G D
Swe - et like sugarcane
F G D
Slo-ow like a midnight train
F G D
You like to call me every now and then

F G A
And I just can't wait to lose some time again

A G F D
lose some time again

[chorus] ... as long as nobody knows
Nobody knows [D]