```

D                D7
G                                D
Drags you down right from the start
G                A
So you d better count your friends
D                Bm
On a single hand
    G                A                Em
Not judgin never budgin from your side
G                A                D
Always staying with you for the ride
```

```
D                D7
Dyin , is so hard
    G                                D
To say goodbye to those you love
G                A
So I wanna thank you girl
D                Bm
For the things you ve done
    G                A                Em
Your secrets will be safe when you are gone
    G                A                D
Cos you know I ain t telling anyone
```
