

Emma Rumble

Graham Lindsey

[Verse 1]

Em

Emma Rumble Emma Rumble

C

Your black hair s hanging low

D

Your naked arms are glistening And frozen from the snow

Em

C

Emma Rumble Emma tell me For if you don t let me know

D

My heart s already taken So tomorrow I will go

G

C

Emma gladly I ll stay with thee Only if just for tonight

C

I will read the lines between your palms

B

Just move into the light

G

And let it bathe you let me know you

C

You who have been so confined

D

Em

By the beauty that you suffer s

B

Em

Why your hair is growing white

A

Em

Your hair is growing white

[Verse 2]

Em

Emma Rumble Emma Rumble

C

Why do you stir in such distress?

D

Late in the evening you were sleeping You were dreaming I should guess

Em

Do not touch me do not hold me

C

You cried it was useless

D

And implied to me through wild eyes Those things you can t confess

G

Emma sadly I must leave thee

C

As my true love waits alone

C

On the porch step in the moonlight

B A
She looks out and through the cold

G C
If I kiss you I must kill you You told me in gentle tones

D Em
Emma Rumble do not wait for me

B Em
I ll see you down the road

A Em
I ll see you down the road

[intrumental]

Am C D

[Verse 3]

Em
In my hometown the sheriff found

C
My true love in the snow

D
Her body lay beaten there And covered in your clothes

Em
Emma Rumble Emma Rumble

C
I cry as my shotgun loads

D
The night is hot and heavy now

Em
And I m walking down the road

A Em
I m walking down the road

Am C
I m walking down the road

[Outro]

D Em
