I Wont Let You Down Graham Lindsey [intro] F#m В D Βm Α [verse 1] D Α The mirror of your bureau leans as it had before C#7 D Reflecting on a bed where now lays an empty floor Α Your doorway is lamp-lit and aching with some kind of invitation C#7 But you stand there with the curtains pulled down D around your body like some final decision [chorus] Α But I won t let you down I won t let you down C#7 I ll never let you drop to your knees for me D Just put your ear to the ground Bm7 Α D Cause I won t let you down I won t let you down [intrumental] D Ε F#m7 В7 Βm D Α [verse 2] D Α Whatever keeps you warm and lets you sleep tonight C#7 D I must guess it s the dress the windows wrap you in with moonlight Δ I ll lay on this naked floor and wait for you C#7 D And watch your eyes close slowly sadly from across the room [chorus] Α And I won t let you down I won t let you down C#7 D And if by midnight I m gone I swear I ll be back by dawn D Bm7 Α Cause I won t let you down I won t let you down

[intrumental] D E F#m B7m [outro] D I won t let you down Bm I won t let you down A I won t let you down D Bm7 I won t let you down D Bm7 I won t let you down D Bm7 I won t let you down D Bm7