

Back In Time
Graham Parker

Back in time
Graham Parker

Intro [(Em-Em/Em7)x3 times ,then Dsus2]x4 times

G Bm
You stop in the old cafe where you used to play pinball
C Am C

G
And look for the air-raid shelter but it s gone and the cafe seems so

G Bm
small and all the gardens That had trees and stolen apples
C Am C G

now have small businesses flourishing in cinder blocks

G Am Bm C
Then they will call your name and hand you a gold watch

G Am Bm C

Then they will call your name but it doesn t sound like much

Em C Bm Am
And you ll never discover why it s like an old lover

G Am Bm C
you can t touch anymore It doesn t mean much anymore

Dsus2 Em/Em7-----Dsus2(riff intro)

when you go back in time back in time

G Bm
You head down to the local try to find a focal point

C Am C G
A scratch in the wallpaper but it s all been wallpapered over

G Bm
Down at the newsagents it s all pornography

C Am C

G
And you try to get high again but it s like time-lapse photography

G Am Bm C
Then they will call your name and hand you a medal

G Am Bm C

Or something more practical like a whistling kettle

Em C Bm Am
and it ll test your metal Just try to keep grinning

G Am Bm C

knowing that this feeling is Indulgence worse than sinning

Dsus2 Em/Em7-----Dsus2(riff intro)

trying to go back in time

Instrumental: G Bm C Am C (2 times then riff intro)

G Bm

Photographs with a glossy finish letters lovers never finished

C Am C G

And there in a dusty drawer a necktie you once wore

G Bm

And a girl you tried to court made you feel about two feet short

C Am C

G

Where is she now today? What would she have to say?

G Am Bm C

Then they will call your name and hand you a pension

G Am Bm C

A bottle of pills that guarantee life extension

Em C Bm Am

and give you a mention in the local boy makes good section

G Am Bm C

But all the old news is like print stains across your mind

Dsus2 Em/Em7-----Dsus2(riff intro)

when you go back in time

I have maked this chord-tab because there isn t one, right , on the entire web of this nice song of Graham Parker.

Enjoy !!!!
