I was in the honeymoon suite at the Canmore Hotel.
C G D F G
I was drunk, I was dying of loneliness and looking like hell
C G D F G
(it was seventeen years to the day since you'd turned me down).
C G D F G
The locals were brawling, and the bar was emptying out.

Bridge: (Just like intro) C G D F G [x1]

C G D F G
Did you get all those letters I sent? Are you thinking of me?
C G D F G
Or did you hide them in drawers? Under cushions? In pockets? Up sleeves?
C G D F G
The heater is broken, but at least I've got a TV.

Bridge: (Just like the last one) C G D F G [x1]

C G D F G
Imagine we d run away together and we d made it this far.
C G D F G
We d get married for ninety-two dollars in Riverside Park.
C G D F G
The three sisters would cry, and tie cans to the back of my car.
C G D F G
And I d be in the honeymoon suite and not back in the bar.

Bridge:(Like always) C G D F G [x1]

The next morning the weather was perfect, so I went for a drive
C G D F G
through the mountains and past little homes with little kids playing outside.
C G D F G
A wife, and a husband - a life that should have been mine.

Thanks!

Jose :) (BCH)
