We were all in blue disguised in black,
bad news travels fast,
sets in slowly.

Morning of an early loss,
the words came out all wrong,
the bells were all ringing out loud.

Chorus:

	Em	D	G	C
Left	aside	for the sake,	of rain	on a sunny day,
(C)	Em	A
we all get left behind	sometimes	when time was all we had.

Verse:

The Index moon was red,
I was thinking about a friend,
train whistles blowing.

Echoing out a past,
splintered wood and ash,
the bells were all ringing out loud.
