D A F#m A Bm D A
D A F#m A Bm D A

D A F#m
Silence drawing a crowd
A Bm
Surely you would have known
D A
Never could have read it aloud
D A F#m
Woven webs cover the walls
A Bm
Wine stains on the floor
D A
Of the Oslo novelist now
G A D A
Come tomorrow this will all be gone

G A D A
Finally nothing to say
G A D A G A
More empty words on the page
D A
Pour a glass all the ribbons are dry
G A G
Raise a toast for the novelist tonight

F#m G A
D A F#m A Bm D A

D A F#m
Sun down fell, starting to wake

A Bm
Tragedy at a time

D A
Getting later earlier every day

D A F#m
Words in lines and I

A Bm D A

Can t decide, how to make this end any other way

G            A                            D        A

Come tomorrow this will all be gone

G            A                            D        A
