Hold on the further waves are high,
sleepless every night,
lie down shading your eyes from everyone.

Hey darlin don t you look fine,
so blue all the time,
when you re terrified.

Over and over the lines
you memorized in time,
now you re so tired
and the telephone s too far away.

Phone lives have taken all your time, taken all this time,
for the rest of our lives we re terrified.

The photographs they ve taken make you look blind, your costumes made of twine, now you re forgetting all of your lines again.

But hey darlin ,
don t you look fine,
your two front teeth shaved like ice and sharp as razors.

Hey darlin don t you look finfe, the dull look in your eyes, you re terrified.

Holding the hands of our crimes,
darlin don t you look fine,
as brave as we were those days.

Doing the best we knew how on a torn blue foam couch,
as brave as we were those days.

(Riff)

Holding the hands of our crimes,
darlin don t you look fine,
as brave as we were those days.
