[Intro]
You didn't really die
You only went away
My drummer he saw you
Buying supplies about a week ago
A couple towns away
South on the interstate
[Verse 1]
I gave him shit for not
Telling me sooner than he did
He said he thought I knew
He said everybody else has seen her too
I haven t been around that much
Or kept in touch with anyone or anything
[Instrumental]

[Verse 2]

                                     D
And who stayed on with you while you hid?
Through all those silent nights
That silence sure can be real loud
Louder than anything

[Verse 3]
You didn t really die
So what am I do do with
The memories of ours
I chronicled and buried in the back yard
Dig them up today
Attach a note that says they re yours
Leave them at the door of the supply store
And hope that when you come along
You bring yourself to read of them
                                                   G C
And wonder from precisely that there moment on...
[Outro]
Why would I want to die?
            D
Why would I want to die?
Why would I want to die?
                         G C
Why would I want to die?
