I look around at the first signs of spring,
G D
willow trees pushing out leaves of light green.
D A G D
I got a cave in my backyard, reminds me of all the scary and dark.
(Chorus*)
G A
Tennessee mountains and slade bottom streams, D G
roll down my brain and float in my dreams.
D A D
I d never found an arrowhead before.

There s a blue heron out there, he s eating snails.
Eats the whole thing, even the shells.
Walking through amaranth and black berry vines, down by the water with a bottle of wine.
*Tennessee mountains and slade bottom streams, roll down my brain and float in my dreams. I d never found an arrowhead before.
*Black eyed girl say see my friend, she gonna be there until the end, but I d never found an arrowhead before.

C - G - D (x2)

You can make a stone path to the other side, you can make waterfalls for the fairies to ride, but when you get there $I$ just hope you know the dreams all around you and the rivers still flow.
*Got me a daughter and I got me a son, I remember the days when $I$ didn $t$ have one, but I d never found an arrowhead before.
*Cut like a razor and it stab like a blade, it ll kill anything that $s$ ever been made. Float through the wind and pierce the dark, right through the skin, right through the heart.

But I d never found an arrowhead before...
$\mathbf{C}-\mathbf{G}-\mathbf{D}(\mathrm{x} 2)$

I look around me and I wanna live, got a farm in the country and a mortgage on the hill.
Come visit me, hell, it ain t that far.
We can go swimming right in the backyard.
*Tennessee mountains and slade bottom streams, roll down my brain and float in my dreams. I d never found an arrowhead before.
*Tennessee mountains and slade bottom streams, roll down my brain and float in my dreams.
I d never found an arrowhead before.

Outro: C $\mathbf{C}$ - D (x2)
