There s thirty people in the kitchen.
And there s always room for more.

Oh-Oh-Oh, Come on now.
G C D

Well there ll be music all around you.
You should see the way it feels.
Come on off we go now heal in toe now.
To the jigs and reels.
Well somebody s got a fiddle.
And someone else brought a guitar.
We got Bobby on the squeeze box.
Got my chair and mason jar.

(Chorus)

(Chorus)

Well there ll be smiling there ll be laughing.
Well that s good enough for me.
There ll be dancing all around you.

This is where you want to be.
So pile your books up in the corner.
Hang your jackets from the door.
There s thirty people in the kitchen.
And there s always room for more.

Goin Up (Great Big Sea)

I am part of a Celtic/NEWfoundland Band and we do covers of a number of songs by Great Big Sea. I know people give it their best effort but I am tired of seeing songs posted for Great Big Sea that are totally wrong. It s confusing for the beginner. Thus, I thought I d make my contribution. Here s the proper way to play Goin Up by Great Big Sea. Trust me this is correct, as we play this just like them, including all the accordian parts (which our accompanying guitar must match). Hope this helps with at least some of the confusion on how to play Great Big Sea songs.G C
